The Jackson Sun

Checkers scheduled to open in late May

Omer Yusuf, USA TODAY NETWORK – Tennessee

Checkers is still scheduled to open its first Jackson location at Carriage House Drive by the end of May.

The longtime drive-thru restaurant does not serve breakfast but features a lunch, dinner and late-night menu, which includes burgers, hot dogs, wings and its “Famous Seasoned Fries.” Riad Razeq, the franchisee of the new Checkers, said he is excited to bring quality, affordable food to Jackson.

"We will bring the best service (to Jackson)," Razeq said. "We are excited about bringing the first Checkers to Jackson."

Jackson will also be one of the first markets to have a Modular 4.0 Checkers, which will add a “cleaner” look, and is unique because the restaurant will be built off-site, shipped to Jackson and placed at its Carriage House Drive location.

Razeq said it is possible he and his brother will look at opening a second Checkers in Jackson, but that will depend on the public’s response to the first location once it is opened.
