Monsterella Stix Are Coming

Checkers & Rally's — a company with two branded drive-through chains, Checkers and Rally's — doesn't currently have a Massachusetts presence, but it's coming. The company has announced plans to open "upwards of 50 new restaurants" in the Boston area, plunking down locations quickly thanks to its "Modular 4.0" buildout model that entails putting together a modular building offsite and delivering it to a plot of land by truck. Checkers and Rally's serve what you'd expect from drive-throughs, including burgers, hot dogs, fries, milkshakes, and "Monsterella Stix," which are probably pretty standard mozzarella sticks but more fun to order.
